

FUTURE

Karinya Youth Transitional Tenancy (KYTT) Program

Available for a young person aged 16 to 24 who is at risk of or currently experiencing homelessness.

Provides independent, safe and affordable housing for up to two years with intensive support tailored to the young person's needs and goals.

Our shared goal is to improve health and wellbeing and reconnect a young person into education, training, employment and community life.

KYTT's Four Focus Areas of Support

Transitional Housing

Our program provides safe and affordable transitional housing for up to two years, as a foundation for addressing homelessness.

Access to Education, Training, Employment and Income

Supporting a young person with accessing education and training, increasing opportunities to find employment and achieving financial independence.

Health and Wellbeing Support

Support to enhance a young person's wellbeing to improve their quality of life, encourage self-sufficiency, and connection with external services.

Social Inclusion

Providing a young person with opportunities to build positive relationships, connect with supportive networks, engage with their community, maintain cultural ties, and participate in meaningful activities.

This program is funded by the
